THE BUZZ

NOVEMBER

Fun, Fun, Fun Winding Down 2021

Ready for a Fall Happy Hour? This Wednesday, November 17, please join GHNA for our first Neighborhood Happy Hour since The COVID Years began. We will gather at the new Central Bar inside Dickey's BBQ at Central Expressway and Knox/Henderson from 5:30 – 7pm. Your first appetizer is courtesy of your GHNA Happy Hour Sponsor, local realtor Robert Kucharski. See you at The Central Bar!

Play Date At The Park

More fun continues at Glencoe Park this Saturday, November 20 from 9:30-11:30am. All ages are welcome, so come out and meet other families in the neighborhood. Snacks and beverages provided by two of our favorite GHNA Partners, Tom Thumb and Trader Joe's. Plus, Tammy Bardwell, founder and owner of our event sponsor, Studio Bella, will be onsite making soothing holiday "calm down" bottles with kids.

If you ordered a Pint-Sized Print Santa Star ornament to paint, they will be ready for pick up to either take home or paint them on site at the Glencoe playground. Join us in thanking Pint-Sized Prints for giving back 15% of each ornament sale to GHNA Crime Watch!

Early Bird Membership Special

New 2022 memberships paid now enjoy member benefits for the rest of the 2021 calendar year at no extra charge. Greenland Hills' Crime Watch/ENP program is proven to deter crime. Crime Watch is funded by annual voluntary membership dues that go toward the coordination of Extended Neighborhood Patrols (ENP) by off-duty Dallas police officers, as well as networking within the neighborhood to make residents aware of suspicious activities. Our goal is to facilitate and galvanize an active, connected, and safer community. Learn more about joining GHNA and Crime Watch with this QR code.
